

INITIATION OF CLUB MEMBER

This fine group of new members is being presented to you this evening after having been interviewed by the Membership Committee and approved by your Board of Directors.

From each new member there are certain obligations and responsibilities which our organization expects you to accept with your membership.

Will you please answer the following questions:

Will you make a determined effort to attend the monthly meetings?

Will you support the project of _____ when you are called upon?
club name

Do you agree to serve on committees whenever you are qualified and it does not place undue hardship on you or your family?

As a token of your membership, we are presenting you with a membership pin.
Wear it proudly!
